Key Terms & Conditions

I have read and received the merchant agreement. I acknowledge the below terms:

- I have read and understood that the above-shared commercials are exclusive of GST and the taxes and pricing is subject to change based on updates from the courier company or revisions in rates.
- I agree to declare the accurate weight and dimensions of my packets and also agree that no dispute can be raised due to incorrect weight and dimensions and no claim will be entertained.
- I understand that the volumetric weight of my package could be higher than the dead weight and agree to be billed for volumetric or dead weight, whichever is higher.
- I understand that I will be liable for the shipping charges and also the return charges of a shipment if returned and return charges are the same as the forward charges. In case of any reverse shipments, reverse pickup charges are 1.5 times the forward shipping charges.
- I agree with the fact that based on the invoice value (price) a fixed COD charge or COD percentage will be charged, whichever is higher.
- I understand that shipping prohibited items and dangerous goods are not permissible and I shall abide by those restrictions and be ready to pay a penalty if found shipping prohibited items. I also understand that liquid and semi-solid products cannot be sent via air and will be sent only through surface shipping.
- I agree and understand that I will use both shipping labels and manifest that are generated from the dashboard and not manual labels.
- I agree and understand that proper packaging of my products has to be done from my end. I shall be solely liable for any damage arising out of improper packaging and agree that no claim will be entertained for glassware, fragile products, concealed damages and improper packaging.
- I agree to pay extra charges like address correction charges and ODA charges, if applicable.
- I understand that billing disputes need to be escalated within 7 days from the invoice date. Disputes with respect to weight should be supported by image proof of the shipments.
- I understand that there is a chance that pick-up services may face issues due to operational concerns of the courier company, especially in case of new pickup locations.
- I understand that additional government rules and norms may be applicable while shipping to certain states and subject to change without prior intimation and will abide by them.

Volumetric Calculation	Air: (LxBxH)/5000; Surface: (LxBxH)/5000 Delhivery 2 KG, 5 KG & 10 KG have 4000 as volumetric divisor.
